THE AUDITORIUM.

the most prominent is the act of al Stephens, the one-legged sym-t. Mr. Stephens, although having one of but one of his lower limbs, the ere of but one of his lower limbs, performs many startling stunts, such as walking and hand balancing on the sack wire, and concluding with his original trick of climbing an unsupported pole, a feat which has never been duplicated. Johnny Small and his Small Siebers have a bright, snappy act that goes through with a dash and im that is refreshing. The male member of the act is a corking good eccentric dancer. Sylvia, Smath and Eaylis, the singer, 'cellist and pianist, have an ultra-refused act that will appeal especially to lovers of music. Keegan and Mack have a character change specialty that proves entertaining and amusing. A classy set of pictures fill out a most acceptable bill. The Auditorium the only place in town where the famous "Imp" and "Bison" films may be seen.

BREED THEATER.

The Drunkard's Reformation, with Descriptive Lecture.

The tremendous sensation caused by the exhibition of the Roosevelt in africa pictures at the Breed theater last evening was the result of the great prestire that had preceded them, for the home theater was packed to the doors at each performance and everyone departed well pleased with this collection of genuine African plotures leaturing the former president.

A notable addition to the splendid pictures was the eloquent description given by Mr. E. J. Farrell of Keith's best pictures but for the superb Blograph pictures but for the superb Blograph picture in Old Kentucky. Mr. Farrell has been in the employ of the Blograph company for a long time and gives a dramatic and snappy description of all subjects that fall to him, his murvelous story of Old Kentucky eaving a majority of the house in ears. He will remain for the balance of the week at the Breed and today will lecture upon The Drunkard's leformation, acknowledged by puipit and press to be the greatest tempermore picture and lesson ever put upon he screen of a motion picture house. Mr. Irving Joy, whose splendid voice wen of a motion picture house Mr. Irving Joy, whose splendid voice has pleased so many during his en-gagement, will be heard in a new and selected song programme, included in which will be one of his star concert

"THE TRUSTEE" AT OLYMPIC.

Cast of Local Amateurs Promises Sterling Production in Four-Act Drama Under Open House Auspices.

If you want to see the topliner in amateur dreamatics and then to enjoy the balance of the evening in terpacherean delights, you must go to discover the second of the evening, when the Trustee," a four-act drama, is to be given under the auspices of Open House. A cast of fifteen Norwich people under the direction of J. C. Davis has been doing splendid work in rehearsais, attaining a standard that is really professional for the presentation of a delightful blending of the dramatic, heart interest and comedy elements. The four scenes are in the drawing room of the trustee's home, in his office, and in the town justice's effice. The characters appear in the following order: file. The cha

CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

Designed by Representative Bingham of Naugatuck.

of Naugatuck.

A form of pledge for candidates he been proposed by Representative Seth D. Bingham of Naugatuck. Bingham would have it applied to all candidates for the general assembly and also to candidates for governor. It reads:
FORM OF PLEDGE FOR ALL CAN-DIDATES.

I. JOHN JONES, candidate for ... publicly declare that if elected I will advocate, support and demand the following legislative enactment: First.

The appointment of a public utilities ommission, empowered to: 1—Grant franchises to public service 2—To supervise the condemnation of land, and the construction of fixtures by these corporations.

We also carry a large and complete assortment of everything used in fur-by these corporations.

3—To supervise the capitalization of such corporations, and make them sound and safe.

4—To know the financial condition, whether solvent or otherwise, and enforce conditions that will guard and insure investors.

5—To know the physical condition of their plant and equipment and demand that it be made safe.

6—To know the cause of accidents resulting from their operation, and prescribe and enforce remedies therefor.

Statutes limiting demages to $5,000.

First Aid Society Formed. A Middletown First Aid society was recently formed at the Y. M. C. A. The society is an outgrowth of the class in hygiene and first aid, which was given at the association last winter. Its object is to continue the study of hygiene and to awaken a greater interest in the proper care of the injured in the factories and elsewhere. Public meetings will be held once a month.

"Pardon me, governor," began the street beggar. "Certainly, dear fellow," answered the gentleman from Tennessee. "What are you guilty of?"

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME. And Flemish lips are willing,
And soft the maids of Italy
And Spanish eyes are thrilling.
Still the I bask beneath their smile
Their charms fall to bind me.
And my heart fails back to Erin's isla
To the girl I left behind me.

FOETRY.

For she's as fair as Shannon's side
And purer than its water.
But she refused to be my bride
Tho many a year I sought her.
Yet since to France I salled away
Her letters oft remind me
That I promised never to gainsay
The girl I left behind me.

She says, "My own dear love come home,
My friends are rich and many,
Or cise abroad with you I'll roam,
A soldier stout as any;
If you will not come nor let me go.
I'll think you have resigned me."
My heart nigh broke when I answered

To the girl I left behind mo. For never shall my true leve brave
A life of war and tolling,
And never a sulking glave
I'll tread my native soil on;
But were it free, or to be freed,
The battle's close would find me
To Ireland bound, nor message need,
From the girl I left behind me

SUMMER PLANS AND SPECIFICAL TIONS,

Get out the time tables, Lucy, surely we're late this spring.
For it's time to plan vacation and the annual summering.
We who have planned together junkets
and trips and tours—
Harken to my plans, Lucy, and I will listen to yours.

First we must go to the mountains, ug where it's clear and dry "But I don't like the mountains; they'rg likely to be too high.
Rather for us the seashore, by the Atlantic deep—
But I don't like the ocean; its noise never lets me sleep. Why not a trip to Europe, where we can have a change?"
But I am afraid of Europe, where everything seems so strange.
"Well, let's try the Rockies, and travel the boundless west."
But that would be work, my dearest, and the thing we both need is rest.

"Haply, them, Nova Scotia, seel as a mountain grot—" to col? Don't you ever think it! Sometimes it's terribly hot." "Well, let us seek the country, up in the woods of Maine—" Perish the very notion! Miles from a boat or train!

From May 1st house No. 83 Washington street, 14 rooms with all modern conveniences. Inquire of Isaac S. Jones, Insurance and Real Estate Agent, Richards Building, 91 Main Street.

But here's the motif of my ballad, this is the orux of my pome;
That Lucy and I do this each year—and end by staying at home.

Success.
